

The following section features attorneys who have demonstrated leadership qualities and have achieved the AV Preeminent rating by Martindale-Hubbell®.

Martindale-Hubbell®, the company that has long set the standard for lawyer ratings, has supplied ALM with a list of Top Rated Lawyers who have achieved an AV® Preeminent® Peer Review Rating, the highest rating in legal ability and ethical standards. To create this section, Martindale-Hubbell® tapped its comprehensive database of Martindale-Hubbell® Peer Review Ratings™ to identify lawyers who have been rated by their peers to be AV® Preeminent™.

Martindale Hubbell Peer Review Ratings are driven by the confidential opinions of lawyers and members of the judiciary who receive invitations from Martindale-Hubbell®, via an online survey or by mail, to provide reviews of lawyers of whom they have professional knowledge.

A complete directory of all AV® Preeminent™ lawyers can be found online at Lawyers.com® and Martindale.com, in the Martindale-Hubbell® Law Directory in print and CD-ROM formats, and online through the LexisNexis® services and at lexis.com. Don Quixote Didn't Tolerate Injustice. We Won't Either. The Judgment You Fought so Hard to Win Should be Paid!

Judgment-proof? Just saying it leaves a bad taste in the mouth. It happens to every litigator – you win but feel somehow you lost because the Judgment may be uncollectable. But appearances can be deceptive. Many debtors are hoping you will keep that Judgment in your file, move on, and leave them alone. Don't do it! Even when a judgment debtor appears to be judgment-proof, all is not necessarily lost. Winning without collecting is miserable and unjust. Don Quixote, shown here in a beautiful painting by Vladimir Lazarev that is hanging in our office, would never stand for that.

We Collect Debts and Enforce Judgments.

We take great pride in having become the go-to firm in New York for Judgment enforcement and substantial commercial debt collection matters. This may not sound like the most glamorous legal practice in the world, but you would be surprised by the challenging and important legal issues we have to deal with day-to-day. Plus, we get to know (and laugh about) New York's colorful cast of judgment debtors, who we love to hunt and take down! You can't make some of this stuff up.

Judgment enforcement work is in fact critically important to the integrity of our legal system. Debt collection is the sometimes necessary end-game of what we all do (or should do) routinely: pay our debts. Without payment, there would be no credit. Without credit, our economic system would fail. Without a meaningful and effective judicial process to aid creditors enforcing obligations to pay debts, our courts fail us and there would be no justice.

Our Approach. Our work calls for extreme tenacity in order to pin down a judgment debtor determined to avoid payment. But, as Joe Torre said, "there is power in patience and persistence." This principle guides our work. As a result, judges may not always be thrilled to see us come into their courtroom seeking to enforce Judgments. So be it. But we like to think we earn their respect when we doggedly pursue our client's rights. As a case in point, we're extremely proud of this mention in an opinion from U.S. District Court Judge William H. Pauley III:

"It wasn't an easy process. Quite frankly, someone with less resolve than [the judgment creditor's] attorney Mr. D'Orazio likely would have thrown up their hands at the kind of obstruction that the [judgment debtor] engaged in."

We offer lawyers a valuable service – a no-risk, confidential evaluation of any open Judgment you feel may be collectible. All work is supervised by our Principal Attorney, Bernard D'Orazio, "AV" rated as Preeminent in litigation and collections. Please contact him at 212-608-5300 x103 or bdorazio@dorazio-law.com. You may also send Judgments to judgments@dorazio-law.com.

ARYE, LUSTIG & SASSOWER, P.C.

PERSONAL INJURY, CONSTRUCTION ACCIDENTS, MEDICAL MALPRACTICE, PREMISES LIABILITY, MOTOR VEHICLE ACCIDENTS

For the plaintiff's injury law firm of Arye, Lustig & Sassower, P.C. (AL&S), the recipe for success continues to be simple because it has served its clients well for more than 50 years.

"Our approach has always been to work hard and work smart," said managing partner Mitchell J. Sassower, who leads the firm alongside name partner and senior trial attorney D. Carl Lustig III. "It's a straightforward, but effective strategy and it's proven and documented by our track record."

Indeed, the firm achieved a milestone few others firms can claim – securing more than $1 billion for clients. This is the result of decades of powerful advocacy on behalf of construction workers and victims who have been seriously injured or killed. The lawyers at AL&S are among the most respected attorneys in New York, renowned for their abilities in all personal injury matters, including construction accidents, premises liability, motor vehicle accidents and medical malpractice. The billion-dollar achievement serves as a testament to their skills and longevity, and Lustig and Sassower say they are more inspired than ever to continue their mission.

In addition to their admirable work ethic, the firm delivers the highest level of client service from the moment a client enters their office. The entire AL&S staff provides compassionate guidance throughout the legal process, and they are mindful that the well-being, finances and future of their clients are on the line.

"We stand out because of our ability to empower clients during challenging times," said Lustig. "Our clients often gain remarkable confidence as our collaborations take shape, even when up against the most well-funded insurance companies and defendants. We operate on a contingency basis and always strive to make clients whole again through financial compensation."

Their professionalism has been recognized in and out of the courtroom, as both Sassower and Lustig are AV Preeminent® rated by Martindale-Hubbell® and have been annually listed by Super Lawyers, which only recognizes up to five percent of the lawyers in New York. Lustig is the president of the New York City Trial Lawyers Alliance, a member of the Million Dollar Advocates Forum and the American Board of Trial Advocates, and has been honored by The National Trial Lawyers as one of the Top 100 Trial Lawyers in New York State. Sassower and Lustig and have been named among the nation's top 1 percent of attorneys by the National Association of Distinguished Counsel. This honor is reserved for a select few who elevate standards and demonstrate the highest ideals among the legal profession.

These accolades and leadership positions reflect the respect they have earned among judges and colleagues, securing the firm's stature at the forefront of the legal community. Sassower maintains that their recognized excellence ultimately benefits their clients, who are constantly on their minds.

"We pride ourselves on being at the cutting edge of legal developments in our field," said Sassower. "Injured workers and victims continue to hire us because we have the experience of a large firm but are small enough to provide the hands-on attention they deserve."

GOLDSTEIN, RIKON, RIKON & HOUGHTON, P.C.

Goldstein, Rikon, Rikon & Houghton, P.C. and its predecessors have been at the forefront of protecting property owners' constitutional rights in eminent domain proceedings since 1923. It is the only law firm in the state of New York that limits its practice to eminent domain law.

"Eminent domain represents a drastic operation of the law," notes partner Michael Rikon, the New York State-designated attorney for the Owners Counsel of America, a national network of experienced eminent domain lawyers. "You only get one opportunity to litigate these cases; and because of that, they required tremendous vigilance by a knowledgeable, trial-experienced attorney," he adds.

By limiting their practice to eminent domain law, the attorneys at Goldstein, Rikon, Rikon & Houghton have become authorities in this area of the law, securing significant awards for their clients.

The partners of Goldstein, Rikon, Rikon & Houghton frequently lecture and write articles on eminent domain law. Michael Rikon has authored a column in the New York Law Journal for the past 26 years.

GARY A. ZUCKER

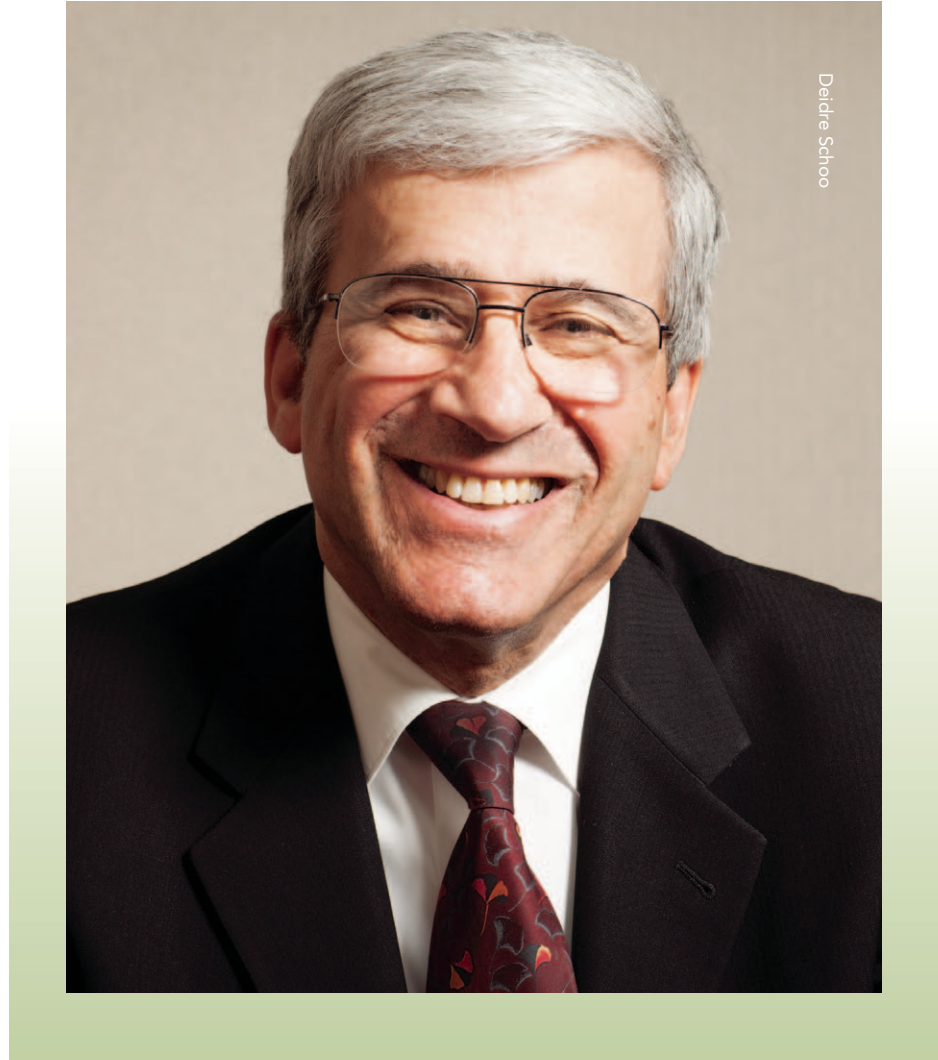

PERSONAL INJURY, MEDICAL MALPRACTICE

Over the past three decades, Gary Zucker has distinguished himself as one of the most committed and professional personal injury and medical malpractice attorneys in New York City.

Mr. Zucker has been given an AV Preeminent® rating by Martindale-Hubbell, the organization's highest rating for professional excellence, based on voting by his peers. In addition, Mr. Zucker has been selected to the 2015, 2016, and 2017 editions of New York Super Lawyers and the New York Law Journal Motor Vehicle Verdicts and Settlements Hall of Fame.

Mr. Zucker handles cases in all five boroughs of New York City, as well as in the surrounding counties. The firm has a track record of consistent success in wrongful death, medical malpractice, and personal injury cases, including those involving automobile accidents, premises liability, defective products and construction accidents.

Among its significant recoveries, the firm obtained a verdict of $10.5 million for a child who suffered severe brain injury due to obstetrical malpractice. It also secured a $6 million settlement for the death of a 32-year-old married plumber, which was the largest reported settlement in New York in 2014 for injury or death suffered by a passenger in a motor vehicle accident.

RONALD FATOULLAH

From the outset, Ronald Fatoullah has always focused on helping others. He has personally handled some of the most complex and high profile estates in New York, and yet, despite all of his achievements and recognition, he remains humble and innately patient. However, when it comes to his clients rights, make no mistake; he is a fierce and effective advocate.

Perhaps more than anyone else in the field of elder law today, Ronald Fatoullah knows what it takes to face the challenges of aging, both legally and financially. To say that he is passionate about what he does would be a gross understatement. He has five offices across New York, and has accomplished a great deal in his decades of experience as an elder law attorney and trusts & estates attorney.

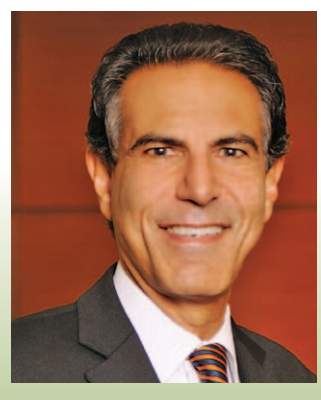

Attorney Fatoullah and his firm are renowned for their cutting edge knowledge and endless dedication. The firm adheres to the highest form of professional and ethical standards and handles cases involving Medicaid eligibility, estate planning and estate litigation, special needs planning, preparing wills & trusts, probate and guardianships.

In addition to his law practice, Fatoullah is a partner with AdvicePeriod, a leading wealth management firm, where he delivers conflict free, sophisticated planning-based advice to his clients. At Adviceperiod, he focuses on delivering planning based advice and exemplary service to his clients. Ron is also registered with the NFL Players Association as an NFLPA Registered Player Financial Advisor.

Ron's distinguished reputation is based on his contributions to the senior citizen community and his eleven year inclusion as one of the New York Areas "Best Lawyers"® and as a Super Lawyer.

He was Chair of the Financial Planning and Investments Committee of the Elder Law and Special Needs Section of the New York State Bar Association (NYSBA), serves as co-chair of the Board of Directors of the Long Island Chapter of The Alzheimer's Association and chairs their legal committee, and he also serves on the Executive Council of AARP in New York.

Mr. Fatoullah is committed to delivering the ultimate client experience by staying true to his values of integrity, honesty and excellence. He is also a frequent speaker on estate planning, elder law and contributes articles to the New York Times, Newsday, The Wall Street Journal and various online publications.

DISABILITY, LIFE, LTC AND ERISA LTD INSURANCE CLAIMS

My firm represents individuals against insurance carriers in individual disability, ERISA, LTD, long term care, life and other complex insurance claims.

For more than 35 years we have focused on getting policyholders what insurance companies owe them. We understand the hardships individuals face when forced to fight deep-pocket insurance companies at a time when they are least able to do so. We have the knowledge and experience to successfully guide clients through this highly adversarial process, so they get the insurance benefits to which they are entitled. Our mission is to make sure that insurance companies timely pay the benefits which they owe to our clients. Protecting a family's financial lifeline is too important to "go it alone."

We practice in New York and New Jersey, but represent clients with local counsel nationwide.

NEW YORK LARCHMONT

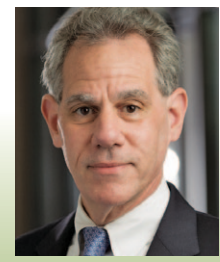

JONATHAN D. SANDS

Personal Injury, Property Damage, Litigation

Jonathan D. Sands represents clients who have suffered serious damages in personal injury, product liability and construction-site accidents. He also represents individuals and businesses that have suffered substantial damage to personal and business property. Each client is unique and Mr. Sands is highly experienced in evaluating whether early settlement in the claim stage, traditional litigation, or alternative dispute resolution might best serve the individual client.

Mr. Sands founded his practice seventeen years ago after serving as an assistant district attorney in the appeals, trial and major narcotics bureaus at the Kings County District Attorney's Office, and as a senior trial attorney for major liability insurance carriers. In addition to his own practice, he is often called upon by other attorneys to assist with the handling of their matters.

Mr. Sands graduated from Tulane University, and from Case Western Reserve School of Law in 1987, served in the New York State Bar Association House of Delegates, and holds an AV Preeminent rating by Martindale-Hubbell, the highest peer review rating for legal ability and ethical standards.

NEW YORK SCARSDALE

DEBORAH A. SCALISE

For more than nine years, Deborah A. Scalise, Esq. and Sarah Jo Hamilton, Esq., partners in Scalise & Hamilton LLP, have devoted their practice to the representation of professionals in ethics and professional responsibility matters before the Character and Fitness, Grievance Committees and the Judicial Conduct Commission. They provide proactive advice and defensive counsel when an attorney, a firm or a judge is dealing with ethical issues or misconduct.

Ms. Scalise is active in several statewide and local bar associations; she was past president of both the Westchester Women's Bar Association and the White Plains Bar Association. She served as Chair of the NYSBA CLE Committee for five years, and is a member of the NYSBA Professional Ethics Committee. Ms. Scalise is listed as one of the Top 50 Women in the New York Metro Super Lawyers, as published in the New York Times (2014-2016), and as one of the Top 25 Lawyers in the County, as published in the Westchester Magazine (2013-2016). In 2016, Ms. Scalise was appointed to the NYS OCA CLE Board by Chief Judge Janet DiFiore. She testified before the OCA State Commission on Professional Discipline in 2015; her authored materials were annexed to the Commission's Report which issued recommendations as to the unification of the NYS disciplinary process that were implemented as Court Rules by OCA in 2016.
