NOTICE

New York City Civil Court has calendared all actions filed prior to March 17, 2020, that have had no activity since March 17, 2020, to be addressed in:

Part 97: Where an index number has been issued and no additional filing or responsive paper has been received, nor has there been any other activity.

Part 98: Where an index number has been issued, an affidavit of service docketed and no additional filing or responsive paper has been received by the court, nor has there been any other activity.

-and-

Part 99: Where an index number has been issued, an answer filed and no notice of trial has been filed, nor has there been any other activity, motion practice, etc.

The combined calendar will be called as follows:

February 22, 2023, in Bronx County Civil Court, room 528A

February 23, 2023, in Kings County Civil Court, room 1202

February 22, 2023, in Queens County Civil Court, room 308

February 22, 2023, in New York County Civil Court, room 949

February 23, 2023, in Richmond County Civil Court, room 5

Interested parties who seek and/or agree to have the case remain active on the court's calendars must file with the General Clerk's Office of the appropriate county location of the court, a notice of intent to prosecute/defend or a stipulation agreeing to restore the case to the calendar prior to the appropriate date. Failure to file either of the aforementioned documents with regard to cases appearing on the Parts 97 and 98 calendar shall result in an administrative dismissal of the action. Failure to file either of the aforementioned documents with regard to cases appearing on the Part 99 calendar shall result in an administrative off calendar marking.

Dated: December 22, 2022
Hon. Carolyn Walker-Diallo, JSC
Administrative Judge
Civil Court of the City of New York