

Kings County Civil Court

Virtual No-Fault General Meeting Wednesday, August 7

The Supervising Judge of Kings County Civil Court, Hon. Dweynie E. Paul will host a general meeting with No- Fault practitioners and any interested parties. The meeting will be an opportunity to discuss certain aspects of no-fault practice in Kings County Civil Court. The goal is to improve the administration and adjudication of no-fault cases in Civil Kings only. The meeting will focus on the following agenda items:

1. New Part Rules for No-Fault TAP and Motions Parts effective September 2024
2. Adjournments (criteria, No Further Adjournment (NFA) markings, notice of new NFA marking dates)
3. Calendar Call time changes for: 1) Motions from 11:00am to 9:30am; Oral arguments commence at 11:30am and 2) Trials from 10:00am to 10:30am
4. How to effectively increase the number of final (NFA) dispositions on No- Fault motions heard daily
5. Organizing of NYSCEF submissions ( exhibits filed individually and labeled accurately describing what documents are within the exhibit)

Participants are encouraged to present thoughtful questions, concerns, and ideas that will serve to advance this practice area in Kings County Civil Court. Please submit your questions and suggestions to Catherine Collins at cacollins@nycourts.gov so that we may add it to the agenda. We encourage managers and those with authority to speak on behalf of the law firm to be active participants in this meeting. We are looking forward to hearing from you.
