

REASSIGNMENT OF INVENTORY

Effective Monday, April 2, 2018, the Honorable Manuel J. Mendez, who has been assigned to Part 13, has been designated the New York City Asbestos Litigation Coordinating Judge. Cases assigned to him in this capacity will be reassigned to him in Part 13. Justice Mendez will also maintain the current inventory of matters assigned to him in Part 13, until further notice. The Part 13 Courtroom will continue to be Room 210 at 71 Thomas Street. The telephone number for Part 13 will remain the same - (646) 386-3736.

Dates scheduled for conferences or other appearances in asbestos cases now being assigned to Part 13 will remain in effect unless otherwise directed by Justice Mendez. Motions in asbestos cases that are being assigned to Part 13 and that are currently pending in the General Clerk's Office's Motion Submission Courtroom (Room 130) will be submitted to Justice Mendez in accordance with the new Part assignment. For additional information about the status of any individual case, see Scroll.

Counsel are also encouraged to sign up for the court system's E-Track service program which allows them to list some or all of the firm's cases that are pending in the Supreme Court, Civil Branch, New York County, and in other counties as well. E-Track will send e-mail notifications regarding all court developments in listed cases. E-Track can also provide appearance reminders. To sign up for E-Track, counsel should go to the following address:
