

NOTICE

As part of our effort to safely return to normal court operations, the New York County Civil Court will begin remote court conferencing of select pending cases on July 13, 2020 and until further notice, upon the court's own initiative and, where appropriate, at the request of parties. Attorneys with pending cases, where the other party is represented by counsel (two-attorney cases), which were calendared in New York County Civil Court, 111 Centre Street and were adjourned because of the COVID-19 pandemic are encouraged to provide an email address and/or phone number, along with the Index Number of the case, by contacting the Court at 646-386-5600 or manhattancivilcourt@nycourts.gov. A clerk will then be in touch with counsel to schedule a remote conference.

No-fault cases will be placed on the calendar by the Court in the following order:

- Mondays and Tuesdays: GEICO
- Wednesdays: Allstate
- Thursdays: all other insurance companies

Cases in which one or more parties are unrepresented are not being scheduled for conferences at this time. Please do not use this number to discuss your case or this email address to send documents.

Dated: July 2, 2020

Hon. Carol Sharpe
Supervising Judge
Civil Court, New York County