New York, NY – March 26, 2020 – The New York County Lawyers Association today has announced the launch of their COVID-19 Resource Center which can be accessed at NYCLA.org/COVID19. This site will aggregate information from various sources, both local and federal, and organize the information into 4 categories: Courts, CDC, Professional and Personal.

The New York County Lawyers Association closed its doors on March 17th until further notice to do its part in preventing community spread of the COVID19 virus. The next day NYCLA’s entire staff was mobilized remotely and has been working to deliver critical information, access to benefits and virtual Continuing Legal education to its 8,000 Members as well as the rest of the New York legal community.

“NYCLA is here to support our Members as we collectively navigate these unfortunate but necessary disruptions. Our COVID-19 information resource center, to which we will add new content on a daily basis, expanded CLE Tuition Assistance Program, and upcoming low cost and no-cost online CLEs are just some of the ways we are supporting our Members and the New York legal community,” said Stephen C. Lessard, NYCLA President.
