New Jersey Law Journal

New Jersey Arbitration Handbook

By William A. Dreier and Robert E. Bartkus

New Jersey Arbitration Handbook is a firsthand guide to arbitration for practitioners and arbitrators alike, written from the perspective of what an experienced arbitrator looks for in the hearing process. The book provides helpful advice and tips on what you can expect in a typical hearing and what will be expected of you.

EDITOR'S NOTE

For the attorneys listed here, inclusion in the Law Journal's Associates Class of 2019 yearbook might represent a new career as a freshly minted lawyer, or a new beginning following a move from one law firm to another. Whatever the reason, we know it's meaningful for all of them to be doing the work they do. With more than 230 associates listed, these short biographies don't do their stories justice. Certainly all have worked hard to arrive here. But for each, much of the story is left to tell. We know that we at the Law Journal might be reporting on the work that these associates do—in court, in deal-making, in policy-making, in pro bono and community endeavors, and more—for years to come. We wish them luck and hope that their hard work will be rewarded, and that the legal profession and industry will benefit, too. Congratulations to all, and cheers to new beginnings.
