8 Attorney for Plaintiff

9 IN THE SUPERIOR COURT FOR THE STATE OF ARIZONA

10 IN AND FOR THE COUNTY OF MARICOPA

11 MICHAEL WESLEY,

12 Plaintiff,

13 vs.

14 CITY OF MESA, SGT. R. SHEEHAN
15 (Badge #14626), SGT. M. HARRIS (Badge
16 #16816), OFFICER KENNETH WARREN
17 (Badge #11464), OFFICER J. SHUMWAY
18 (Badge #14953), OFFICER J. KING (Badge
19 #16234), and OFFICER H. MCDONALD
20 (Badge #17458).

21 Defendants.

Case No.

CV2018-097085

COMPLAINT

(TORT NON-MOTOR VEHICLE)

22 For his Complaint against the Defendants, Plaintiff alleges as follows:

23 JURISDICTIONAL ALLEGATIONS

- 24 1. At all times relevant hereto, Plaintiff resided in Maricopa County, Arizona.
- 25 2. At all times relevant to this Complaint, Defendants Sheehan, Harris,
Warren, Shumway, King and McDonald ("Defendant Officers") were police officers with the City of Mesa Police Department, acting within the scope of their employment.
3. At all times relevant to this Complaint, Defendant City of Mesa ("City") was a municipality organized within the State of Arizona.

1 4. The events giving rise to this Complaint occurred in Maricopa County,
2 Arizona.

3 5. This Court has jurisdiction over this matter because the amount in 4 controversy exceeds the minimum jurisdictional limits of this Court.

5 6. The estimated value of the damages in this case is between $50,000 and 6 $300,000, so this case qualifies as a Tier 2 case, pursuant to Rule 26.2(d)(1), Arizona
7 Rules of Civil Procedure.

8 ALLEGATIONS OF FACT

9 7. On December 11, 2017, Plaintiff Michael Wesley drove to a Denny's
10 Restaurant, where he enjoyed a free meal because it was his birthday.

11 8. Plaintiff suffers from Huntington's Disease, which often manifests itself in 12 the following symptoms:

13 Personality changes, mood swings & depression
14 Forgetfulness & impaired judgment
15 Unsteady gait & involuntary movements (chorea)
16 Slurred speech, difficulty in swallowing & significant weight loss

17 9. As Plaintiff drove home, Defendant Officer J. Shumway pulled him over 18 because one of Michael's headlights were not illuminated. Plaintiff was surprised to have 19 been pulled over and told the officer that he had done nothing wrong.

20 10. In the course of their conversation, Michael informed the officer that he had 21 just dined at Denny's for his birthday. The officer requested his identification, and 22 Plaintiff complied, handing his driver's license to the officer.

23 11. Soon after Defendant Shumway had stopped Plaintiff's vehicle, Defendant
24 R. Sheehan arrived on the scene.

25 12. Plaintiff repeatedly informed the officers that he had not done anything wrong, consistently referring to the officers as "sir." Eventually, one of the officers replied, "You're explaining this way more than you need to."

1           13. Defendant Shumway repeatedly asked Plaintiff whether or not he had taken
2 illegal drugs, to which Plaintiff consistently replied that he had not consumed any alcohol
3 or taken any drugs. Yet, Defendant Shumway requested a drug-recognition officer to 4 evaluate Plaintiff for symptoms of drug use.

5           14. Defendant Warren responded to the scene at approximately 2:24am.

6           15. Plaintiff refused to do the field sobriety tests.

7           16. Defendant Warren notified Plaintiff that he was under arrest and grabbed
8 his left arm.

9           17. Defendant Sheehan then grabbed Plaintiff's right arm.

10          18. Defendant Officers Shumway, Harris and King all assisted in detaining
11 Plaintiff and placing him in handcuffs.

12          19. Plaintiff pleaded with the Officers to let him go. It was obvious that
13 Plaintiff was extremely scared and he screamed and groaned while the Defendant Officers
14 forcibly dragged him to the police car.

15          20. While riding in the back of the police car, with his hands and legs
16 restrained, Plaintiff told Defendant Warren that he was scared, confused, and upset.

17          21. Defendant Warren transported Plaintiff to the police station.

18          22. Defendant Officers Warren, Shumway and McDonald forcibly restrained
19 Michael in a chair while a phlebotomist, Aaron Farris, stuck a needle in his vein and drew 20 blood without his consent and against his will.

21          23. Each of the Defendant Officers were acting within the course and scope of 22 their respective employment during their involvement in the above-described incident.

23          24. Each of the Defendant Officers were acting under color of state law during 24 their involvement in the above-described incident.

25          25. Each of the Defendant Officers were acting "in concert", pursuant to A.R.S.
§ 12-2506, during their involvement in the above-described incident.

1           26. Defendant Officers also physically accosted Plaintiff in a manner which
2 exceeded the minimal amount of force reasonably necessary to accomplish a lawful
3 purpose, in violation of A.R.S. § 13-3881(B).

4                           COUNT ONE — WRONGFUL IMPRISONMENT

5           27. Plaintiff hereby incorporates all previous allegations in this Complaint.

6           28. Defendant Officers wrongfully imprisoned Plaintiff by intentionally
7 restraining him in handcuffs, forcibly detaining him and ordering him to remain in a
8 certain area, without any warrant, justification or legal cause.

9           29. Those Defendant Officers who did not physically restrain Plaintiff are liable
10 for instigating or indirectly participating in the other officers' wrongful imprisonment of 11 Plaintiff, by acting in concert with those officers who physically restrained Plaintiff.

12           30. The conduct of the Defendant Officers, described above, resulted in the 13 restraint of Plaintiff's liberty or freedom of movement, either by their use of force or their 14 conduct, which induced the fear and apprehension which convinced Plaintiff that he was 15 not permitted to leave or even move about freely.

16           31. The conduct of the Defendant Officers, described above, would have 17 caused a reasonably prudent person, under those circumstances, to believe that he was 18 restrained.

19           32. Each of the Defendant Officers acted "in concert" to accomplish their 20 restraint of Plaintiff. Therefore, each of the Defendant Officers are jointly and severally
21 liable for all of the conduct of the other officers and the resulting damages, pursuant to
22 A.R.S. § 12-2506.

23           33. Defendant Officers wrongfully imprisoned Plaintiff with physical force that 24 exceeded the minimal amount of force reasonably necessary, even if the arrest had been 25 legally justified, in violation of A.R.S. § 13-3881(B).

1           34. Defendant City is liable for the actions of their agents pursuant to the
2 principle of Respondeat Superior.

3           35. Plaintiff was harmed by the Defendant Officers' restraint. The Defendants'
4 restraint of Plaintiff directly and proximately caused Plaintiff general and special
5 damages, in an amount to be proven at trial, including: physical injuries, pain, suffering,
6 psychological trauma, mental and emotional anguish, present and future medical 7 expenses, and loss of income. Plaintiff also is entitled to punitive damages against the 8 individual officers.

9                   COUNT TWO — ASSAULT AND EXCESSIVE FORCE

10           36. Plaintiff hereby incorporates all previous allegations in this Complaint.

11           37. Defendant Officers intentionally caused Plaintiff reasonable apprehension
12 of an immediate, harmful or offensive contact.

13           38. Defendant Officers also intentionally touched Plaintiff in a harmful or 14 offensive manner.

15           39. Defendant Officers also physically accosted Plaintiff in a manner which
16 exceeded the minimal amount of force reasonably necessary to accomplish a lawful
17 purpose, in violation of A.R.S. § 13-3881(B).

18           40. The Defendant Officers did not have probable cause or a lawful basis to 19 arrest Plaintiff, detain him, or draw his blood. Consequently, their use of any amount of 20 force was unnecessary and unreasonable.

21           41. The Defendant Officers' unlawful and unjustified use of force constitutes 22 an assault and battery against Plaintiff.

23           42. Each of the Defendant Officers acted "in concert" to accomplish the assault
24 and battery against Plaintiff. Therefore, each Defendant Officer is jointly and severally
25 liable for all of the conduct of the other officers and the resulting damages, pursuant to
A.R.S. § 12-2506.

1 43. Defendant Officers use of force exceeded the minimal amount of force
2 reasonably necessary to accomplish a lawful purpose, in violation of A.R.S. § 13-3881(B).

3 44. Defendant City is liable for the actions of their agents pursuant to the
4 principle of Respondeat Superior.

5 45. Plaintiff was harmed by the Defendant Officers' assault and battery. The 6 Defendants' assault and battery against Plaintiff directly and proximately caused Plaintiff
7 general and special damages, in an amount to be proven at trial, including: physical 8 injuries, pain, suffering, psychological trauma, mental and emotional anguish, present and 9 future medical expenses, and loss of income. Plaintiff also is entitled to punitive damages
10 against the individual officers.

11 COUNT THREE — NEGLIGENCE AND NEGLIGENCE PER SE

12 46. Plaintiff hereby incorporates all previous allegations in this Complaint.

13 47. Defendant Officers had a duty to exercise reasonable care in their 14 interaction with Plaintiff.

15 48. If Defendant Officers' conduct described above (including forcibly 16 restraining Plaintiff, arresting him, and subjecting him to a non-consensual blood draw) is 17 determined to be unintentional, for any reason, then the Officers' conduct at least 18 breached their duty to exercise reasonable care in their interaction with Plaintiff.

19 49. Defendant Officers use of physical force and other conduct toward Plaintiff
20 exceeded the minimal amount of force reasonably necessary to accomplish a lawful
21 purpose, in violation of A.R.S. § 13-3881(B).

22 50. The Legislature enacted A.R.S. § 13-3881(B) for the protection and safety
23 of the public.

24 51. Therefore, Defendants' violation of A.R.S. § 13-3881(B) also constitutes 25 negligence per se.

1           52. Defendant City is liable for the actions of their agents pursuant to the
2 principle of Respondeat Superior.

3           53. Defendants' conduct, constituting negligence and negligence per se,
4 directly and proximately caused Plaintiff general and special damages, in an amount to be 5 proven at trial, including: physical injuries, pain, suffering, psychological trauma, mental
6 and emotional anguish, present and future medical expenses, and loss of income.
7 Plaintiff also is entitled to punitive damages against the individual officers.

8                           COUNT FOUR — INTENTIONAL INFLICTION OF
9   EMOTIONAL DISTRESS

10           54. Plaintiff hereby incorporates all previous allegations in this Complaint.

11           55. By forcibly restraining Plaintiff, arresting him, and subjecting him to a 12 blood draw (as well as subjecting him to the other conduct summarized above), the 13 Defendant Officers intentionally acted in an unlawful and outrageous manner which 14 caused Plaintiff severe emotional distress.

15           56. The Defendant Officers' intentional infliction of emotional distress, caused
16 Plaintiff to suffer physical injury and symptoms, including an aggravation of his
17 Huntington's disease, which continue to this day.

18           57. Defendants' intentional infliction of emotional distress directly and 19 proximately caused Plaintiff general and special damages, in an amount to be proven at 20 trial, including: physical injuries, pain, suffering, psychological trauma, mental and 21 emotional anguish, present and future medical expenses, and loss of income. Plaintiff
22 also is entitled to punitive damages against the individual officers.

23                           COUNT FIVE — NEGLIGENT INFLICTION OF
24   EMOTIONAL DISTRESS

25           58. Plaintiff hereby incorporates all previous allegations in this Complaint.

          59. By forcibly restraining Plaintiff, arresting him, forcibly subjecting him to a blood draw (as well as subjecting him to the other conduct summarized above), all of the

1 Defendant Officers negligently acted in an unlawful and outrageous manner which caused
2 Michael severe emotional distress.

3 60. If the Defendant Officers' infliction of emotional distress is determined not
4 to be intentional, then their conduct constitutes negligent infliction of emotional distress.
5 For example, if the Defendant Officers were unaware, but reasonably should have been 6 aware, of Plaintiff's fragile condition caused by his Huntington's disease, then their 7 conduct constitutes negligent infliction of emotional distress.

8 61. The Defendant Officers' negligent infliction of emotional distress, caused
9 Plaintiff to suffer physical injury and symptoms, including an aggravation of his
10 Huntington's disease, which continue to this day.

11 62. Defendants' negligent infliction of emotional distress directly and proximately
12 caused Plaintiff general and special damages, in an amount to be proven at trial,
13 including: physical injuries, pain, suffering, psychological trauma, mental and emotional 14 anguish, present and future medical expenses, and loss of income. Plaintiff also is 15 entitled to punitive damages against the individual officers.

16 COUNT SIX — NEGLIGENT HIRING, TRAINING,
17 SUPERVISION AND RETENTION

18 63. Plaintiff incorporates all previous allegations in this Complaint.

19 64. Defendant City negligently failed to properly vet, hire, train, supervise
20 and/or retain the Defendant Officers by:

21 a. Implementing, maintaining and tolerating policies, practices and 22 customs which contributed to the illegal actions of Defendant
23 Officers, as summarized above;

24 b. Hiring Defendant Officers without reasonably investigating or 25 adequately determining their propensity for the type of improper
